Douglas County Citizen Corps Council Receives National Award

The Federal Emergency Management Agency has recognized the Douglas County Citizen Corps Council with Honorable Mention for the 2010 National Citizen Corps Achievement Award in the category of Preparing the Public Award. The Council has been recognized for demonstrating innovative practices and achievements that make the community safer, stronger, and better prepared to manage an emergency situation. As an Honorable Mention, Douglas County, KS Citizen Corps will receive a certificate from FEMA and will be promoted on the National Citizen Corps website and in other Citizen Corps materials.

The Douglas County Citizen Corps Council is a diverse group of not-for-profit, response, public safety, community, and business partners working together to promote preparedness efforts throughout the community. The Council is dedicated and proud to be a leading example of cooperation, coordination, and collaboration focusing on local preparedness activities to ensure a more resilient community.
